Title: Welcome Ceremony (Deeksharambh) at Atal Bihari Vajpayee University

Objective: To inspire and motivate newly enrolled students and facilitate their transition into university life.

Date: October 8, 2021

Under the joint aiges of the Commerce and Financial Studies Department and the IQAC, Atal Bihari Vajpayee University organized a Welcome Ceremony for the newly admitted students of B.Com Ist year ad M.Com Ist year.. The program commenced with the lighting of the lamp and garlanding of Goddess Saraswati by the Chief Guest, Honorable Vice- Chancellor Acharya Arun Divakar Nath Vajpayee. He emphasized the importance of time in student life and how understanding it would lead to success. Drawing from his experiences, he boosted the morale of all students and assured teachers and students that all necessary facilities would be provided by the university. He also suggested the formation of various committees within the education department, such as Placement, Cultural, and Sports committees, to nurture students' talents.

On this occasion, Dr. H.S. Hota, the Dean Students Welfare, welcomed all newly admitted students. Mr. Soumitra Tiwari, Head of the Yoga Department, assured everyone that any issues would be resolved with the help of all teachers. Dr. Sumona Bhattacharya, the IQAC Coordinator, briefed the children on all the activities of the university and department. Assistant Professor Gaurav Sahu elaborated on the facilities provided in the university to the new students through a PowerPoint presentation. The Honorable Vice-Chancellor inaugurated a book written by Dr. Mahendra Mehta, titled 'An Evaluation Study of Industrial Progress due to Inspiration in the Jabalpur Department'. Dr. Mehta expressed her gratitude for the release of her book.

At the end, Assistant Professor Gaurav Sahu thanked all the chief guests. Various programs such as dance, songs, games, mimicry, stand-up comedy, etc., were performed by students.
