The department operate with the vision of producing good skilled human resource and professional in the field of commerce. The aim is to bring out entrepreneurs for the benefit of society and contribution in economic growth.

Goods and Services Tax (GST): Goods and Services Tax (GST) is the boldest of tax reforms post independence. This will subsume a number of indirect tax legislation and is a tax trigger, which will lead to expansion of economic activities for all major industries. The GST act will not only aid the ease of doing business but also re-engineer business processes of companies. It is not merely a tax change, but a business change which is likely to lead the growth of India's GDP. GST will bring in various benefits including the following

- Uniformity of tax rates & structures
- Removal of cascading effect of taxes
- Improved competitiveness
- Simple and easy to administer
- Revenue buoyancy
- Single and transparent tax

It is important for every business professional to learn the nuances of the Goods and Services Tax Act. The GST domain includes varied concepts from registration, caption and valuation, place and payment, returns, refunds, classification, time of supply, input/output credit, and compliance system with respect to e-way bill mechanism along with various other new concepts. GST is an opposite tribute to spirit of cooperative federalism and binds India into an Economic Union upholding the Government of India's motto of 'One Nation One Tax'. GST is a proactive step towards vivid opportunities for the country. For better administration of new tax regime in the country, it is important to have more competent and skilled professionals to facilitate regulators to ensure effective compliance of GST.
