Due to COVID-19 entire mode of teaching and learning have became online. Department of Computer Science and Application is continuously organizing Webinar, Faculty Development Program on ICT tools and many other activities to acquaint teachers of HEIs of Chhattisgarh State. We are continually getting quires from teachers of various colleges and universities and continuously providing assistance to them. After successfull completion of two weeks faculty development on Hands-on with ICT tools, we have decided to open an online forum to solve problems of teachers and students on using ICT tools in teaching-learning process.
The teachers and students of HEIs of state can ask any questions related to ICT for teaching-learning to our above panel of experts.

How to Ask Questions?
1. Fill the google forms.
2. Concern mentor will send an email with date and time to solve your problems.
3. Attend the session online and solve your problem.
